After morning Breakfast, transfer to Punakha from Thimphu which takes approx 3 hr one way. On the way cover below sightseeing places. After sightseeing drive back to Thimphu.

Later visit:-

Dochula Pass:

The Dochula Pass is a mountain pass in the snow-covered Himalayas within Bhutan on the road from Thimphu to Punakha where 108 memorial chortens or stupas known as "Druk Wangyal Chortens" have been built by Ashi Dorji Wangmo Wangchuk, the eldest Queen Mother. Apart from the chortens, there is a monastery called the Druk Wangyal Lhakhang (temple), built in honour of the fourth Druk Gyalpo (head of the state of Bhutan), Jigme Singye Wangchuck; the open grounds in its front yard is a venue for the annual Dochula Druk Wangyel Festival. The pass with 108 memorial chortens is adjacent to the country's first Royal Botanical Park.

Punakha Dzong:

It was built in 1637 by Shabdrung Ngawang Namgyal, at the junction of the Phochu and Mochu rivers. This majestic dzong served as both the religious and administrative centre of Bhutan in the past. It measures some 600 by 240 feet and has a six-story, gold-domed tower. Inside are courtyards and religious statuary that hint at the depth of history and spiritual tradition embodied here.

Taksang Monastery it may take 6 hr (to n fro). Suggest taking a hot Stone bath and spa after trekking for body relaxation. Evening free for an exploratory walk around Main Street and the market area by walking.

Tiger's Nest Monastery (Taktsang Lhakhang) is Bhutan's most iconic landmark and religious site. The name Taktsang translates to "The Tiger's Nest". This temple is one of the most holy sites in the kingdom. It is believed that Padmasambhava (Guru Rinpoche) flew to this location from Tibet on the back of a tigress from Khenpajong. This place was consecrated to tame the Tiger demon and was first built in 1692 at a cave where Guru Rinpoche meditated in a cave.

To arrive at the temple you must trek for around 2-3 hours through beautiful, shady pine forests that are colourfully festooned with moss and prayer flags.

After breakfast,

Excursion to Chele-La-Pass:

The 35km drive to Cheli la makes an interesting road excursion and is an excellent jumping-off point for day walks. Chele la separates Haa and Paro valley and at 3988m, it is one of the highest motorable passes in Bhutan. The drive till here from either Paro or Haa is through dense spruce and larch forests according to the seasons. On a clear day, there are spectacular views of Mt. Jumolhari, Jichu Drake and adjoining peaks to the North West, as well as the view of Haa and Paro Valley.
